Ministers: The People of Grace Lutheran

Welcome! Jesus does great deeds of power over demons. Yet none of this power is by faith. Jesus asks his disciples to go out and will be dependent on how others receive. In assembly to witness and to heal, we are dependent on the reception of others. The Spirit always between Jesus and his Abba, between Jesus and us, and those to whom we are sent.

2 Let us build a house where prophets speak
and words are strong and true, where all God's children dare to seek
to dream God's reign anew.
Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus:
All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.

GREETING

Pastor: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God our Father and the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Congregation: And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Pastor: Let us pray. God of the covenant, who have promised us the coming of your kingdom. Give us the strength to live in your love and peace,
that we may faithfully witness to your love and peace
in the name of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Congregation: Amen.

FIRST READING

Ez

Introduction to the Lesson: In 597 BCE, the king of Judah was taken into captivity in Babylon. While there, he received a vision of the Lord. Today's reading recounts this vision. The prophet is to speak God's word to the king.

When I saw this, I fell face downward on the ground.
"Mortal man, stand up. I want to talk to you."
God's spirit entered me and raised me to my feet.
"Mortal man, I am sending you to the king of Babylon.
They have turned against me and are still rebels, just as you are.
They are born and do not respect me, so I am sending you to them."

er those rebels listen to you or not, they
